

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

GlobalSIP 2016, 2017 and 2018

The IEEE Signal Processing Society is accepting proposals for the 2016, 2017 and 2018 IEEE Global Conference on Signal and Information Processing (GlobalSIP). SPS Members are invited to submit a proposal to host GlobalSIP. If you are interested in submitting a proposal please reference our GlobalSIP Proposal Guidelines.

GlobalSIP is a recently launched flagship conference of the IEEE Signal Processing Society. It is made up of a series of symposia and workshops. The conference focuses broadly on signal and information processing with an emphasis on up-and-coming signal processing themes. The conference features world-class speakers, tutorials, exhibits, and technical sessions consisting of poster and oral presentations.

To submit a proposal, send a notice of intent to the VP-Conferences, Prof. Wan-Chi Siu, enwcsiu@polyu.edu.hk and Conference Services Staff at sps-conf-proposals@ieee.org. Include in the notice your contact information and the proposed location. Conference Services Staff will issue the proposal submission form and guidelines upon receipt of the letter of intent. The form must be completed and the proposal submitted to sps-conf-proposals@ieee.org by 20 October 2014. Proposals will be assessed by the Conference Board Executive Subcommittee. Accepted bidding teams [finalists] will be invited to present at the Conference Board meeting held at GlobalSIP 2014, December 3-5, 2014 in Atlanta, Georgia.
